

As a condition of volunteering, I give permission for Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs to conduct a background check on me, which may include a review of sex offender registries, child abuse and criminal history records.

I understand that, if appointed, my position is conditional upon Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs receiving no inappropriate information on my background.

I hereby release and hold harmless from liability, The City of East Orange, Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs, nor its agents, employees, assignees or volunteers thereof, or any other person or organization that may provide such information.

I also understand that, regardless of previous appointments, Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs is not obligated to appoint me to a volunteer position.

If appointed, I understand that, prior to expiration of my term, I am subject to suspension by the Department of Recreation for violation of East Orange Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs policies and principles.

Some of the Best Reason to Volunteer:

1. Why should you volunteer?

- To offer help and support to others and make a difference.
- It adds a whole new dimension to your life.
- Every time you HELP someone you HELP yourself.
- To share, with other what you have been given, and give what you can, part of you.
- Volunteering makes you feel needed.
- Volunteering can lead to learning new skills.
- Volunteering helps you meet new people and breaks down barriers of misunderstanding, mistrust and fear.
- Volunteering can create new contacts, which may help your business or career.
- The rewards you will receive from the experience are more than fair compensation for the amount of time invest.

2. Who should Volunteer?

- Volunteers are caring community members.
- People who want an opportunity to provide a service and make a difference.

Some of the best reasons to give are the ones you may not have considered - the ones that make it worth your while to go that extra step.

People who have spent time volunteering for a cause report that they get back in satisfaction and joy more than they ever expend in inconvenience or effort - what you get back is immeasurable.
